

Modern Slavery Policy Statement

Introduction For the purpose of this policy statement the term Modern Slavery includes: slavery, forced or coerced labour, human trafficking, and child labour.

Edward Baden Ltd provides removal and storage services within the United Kingdom to private individuals, local authorities, health trusts, government departments, law enforcement agencies and businesses of all sizes.

Edward Baden Limited is a privately owned company registered in England and Wales.

Our policy

Edward Baden Limited are committed to ensuring that there is no Modern Slavery or scope for Modern Slavery in our supply chain or in any part or at any level of our business. We will not knowingly use partners, sub-contractors, suppliers or agents who disregard Modern Slavery or turn a blind eye to the evil of Modern Slavery.

Compliance

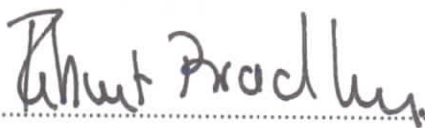

We expect our employees, partners, sub-contracts and agents to act ethically and to promote good working practices at all levels and to accept without reservation the terms and the spirit of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and to follow through with the expectations of our policy to the letter.

We have systems in place to

1. Identify and assess the potential risk areas within our supply chain;
2. Educate and inform those within our supply chain as to our expectations in regard to eliminating the risk of Modern Slavery within our supply chain;
3. Monitor our partners, sub-contractors, suppliers and agents;
4. Monitor the potential risks in the supply chain
5. Protect whistle blowers

This policy statement has been approved and endorsed by all the directors of Edward Baden Limited.

Signed:

Date:

30th October, 2018